

Federally Endangered, Threatened, Proposed, and Candidate Species in Ohio

May, 2006

Public Utilities Commission of Ohio
December, 2006

	Bald Eagle - Threatened		Scioto Madtom - Endangered		Karner Blue Butterfly - Endangered
	Indiana Bat - Endangered		Clubshell Mussel - Endangered		Mitchell's Satyr Butterfly - Endangered
	Piping Plover - Endangered*		Fanshell Mussel - Endangered		Eastern Prairie Fringed Orchid - Threatened
	Copperbelly Water Snake - Threatened		Northern Riffleshell Mussel - Endangered		Lakeside Daisy - Threatened
	Eastern Massasauga - Candidate		Pink Mucket Pearly Mussel - Endangered		Northern Monkshood - Threatened
	Lake Erie Water Snake - Threatened		Purple Cat's Paw Pearly Mussel - Endangered		Running Buffalo Clover - Endangered
	Timber Rattlesnake - PC*		Rayed Bean Mussel - Candidate		Small Whorled Pogonia - Threatened
	American Burying Beetle - Endangered		Sheepnose Mussel - Candidate		Virginia Spiraea - Threatened
			White Cat's Paw Pearly Mussel - Endangered

Note: PC* indicates that a Federal pre-listing conservation plan exists or is being developed

*Piping Plover is Critical Habitat Designated in Erie and Lake Counties